Tennis: MSU's Emerson, ACU's Squillaci top all-conference awards

RICHARDSON, Texas – Midwestern State's Brett Emerson and Abilene Christian's Irene Squillaci were named Lone Star Conference tennis Players of the Year announced by league officials on Monday.

Emerson was selected as the men's top player for the second straight year while also earning first team All-LSC honors. Squillaci claimed honors as the top women's player as well as earning first team All-LSC honors.

The individual honors were voted upon by head coaches at each of the LSC member institutions, while the all-conference honors were determined by results at the LSC Individual Championships Tournament, which was played last October in Wichita Falls, Texas.

Other individual awards went to ACU's Luke Hawk for men's Freshman of the Year, East Central's Julia Arguello for women's Freshman of the Year, ECU's Charli Hibbard and ACU's Hutton Jones for women's Coach of the Year, and Hibbard, who coaches the men's and women's teams, was the men's Coach of the Year.

On the men's side, Emerson led the first-team all-conference singles players list including teammate Stefan McKinney, plus Cameron's Nicolas Mascheroni, Agustin Criado, Tin Hinst and Vitas Van Dijk. The first-team doubles players were MSU's Emerson and Zach Dillard, along with ACU's Ryan Hudson, Kevin Beedy, Bryce Hicks and Luke Hawk.

Squillaci was joined as a first-team singles player by fellow teammates Aina Rafolo, Holly Lindoff, Lana Pavlin and Sarah Drummond, along with NSU's Emina Spirtovic. The Wildcats swept first team doubles honors with Squillaci, Rafolo, Lindoff, Pavlin, Meagan Brown and Drummond.

Altogether, 36 student-athletes from six member institutions were recognized through the LSC's all-conference program.
